

WALDORF MEETS BLACK BARN

Pay homage to the iconic Waldorf Astoria, which closed its doors on February 28 after 86 years. Black Barn Chef/Owner, John Doherty served as the Waldorf's Executive Chef for 23 years and in honor of this historic closing, he has prepared these memorable dishes as a final farewell.

APPETIZERS

Waldorf Salad, Black Truffle

created at the original Waldorf in 1860
where the Empire State Building rests today

or

Gruyere Cheese Soufflé, Prosciutto Cream

as served to President George H. W. Bush
James Baker the 3rd and Prime Minister John Major, 1992

MAIN COURSE

Poached Dover Sole, Caviar Sauce

Ozette Fingerline Potatoes, Hericot Vert

as served to President Bill Clinton at a State Dinner, 1998

or

Thai Braised Short Ribs, Plum Chutney, Rice Noodles

as served at NASCAR's Champions Dinner

DESSERT

Peanut-Caramel Sunday with Tapioca

because it was my daughter Jenna's favorite dessert

$65

signed Waldorf Astoria cookbook available for $38 - not included